eCommerce Sampling that Sells

Odyssey's eCommerce solutions for chemical sampling is a branded, compliant platform that puts your products directly in customers' hands. We combine our industry leading chemical warehousing and fulfillment services with our technical expertise to provide a powerful online solution at scale — an eCommerce platform that enables direct orders of your product.

Count on Odyssey to simplify your sampling eCommerce ordering process.

Services & Solutions

- Launch custom branded eCommerce platform allowing customers to order samples directly — no order management required
- Monetize samples, small packages, and less-than-MOQ orders, making sampling a revenue stream
- Flexible cost-sharing —free samples, shared product cost, discounted pricing, or freight-only options
- Accelerate sales cycles by self-service ordering, faster fulfillment, and professional packaging elevating first impressions
- Ship domestic and international samples, including hazardous materials (49 CFR and IATA certified), with regulatory compliance
- Track customer engagement, repeat sampling, and order activity to inform sales and marketing strategies
- Manage inventory, fulfillment, and replenishment with full ERP integration
- Handle packaging, labeling, documentation, and compliance, end-to-end
